Our extensive public records search did not find Social Security information for Curtis Blake Roberts.

In 1936, Social Security numbers were issued by the federal government to calculate entitlement and benefits for U.S. workers. Now it's used by government agencies and private businesses to access information about employee files, medical records, credit and banking accounts, health insurance accounts, and more.

Some states don't disclose certain public records, so information about Curtis's SSN might not be available.
